

I am adamantly against cell phone usage aboard airborne aircraft. Cell usage is out of control in all aspects of daily living. I just can't figure out why people have to be on the phone all the time -- I don't know that many people I'd want to talk to anyway. Please don't let this happen -- it has disaster written all over it. Sincerely. D. Kordan